

I hope this is not going to be another case where those of us that live in metro area keep subsidizing the rural area with communications services. We currently subsidize the phone and broadband services with charges against our services. People living in the rural areas choose to live there, why should we support that living area!!!!!!!!!!!!!!